Agency Case #: 199600193

On 6/7/1996, Mary Garcia Webb left her home in Wenatchee, Washington on her way to visit family in Conway, Arkansas. She was traveling with two known individuals when their vehicle broke down in Livingston, Montana. Garcia continued by hitchhiking; someone came forward stating they had provided a ride from Livingston, Montana to Billings, Montana.

Garcia was last seen alive on 6/8/1996 off I-90, five miles south of Billings, Montana, around 4:30 PM. On 6/25/1996, her body was found in Northeastern Wyoming, very close to the Montana state border. The victim had suffered multiple gunshot wounds and blunt force trauma.

The Wyoming Division of Criminal Investigation is seeking information from anyone who may be able to assist in this investigation.
